TONY'S GARAGE SALE

We are gearing up for Tony's Garage Sale happening April 24, 25, 26. Volunteers Are Needed Now! If you are interested in helping before the sale, we work every Monday and successive weekdays in the Pavilion Building, as needed. New to volunteering before the sale? Please complete the volunteer survey at the Welcome Center to let us know your general availability. We will do our best to schedule "work days" so that everyone has a chance to be involved. These will be posted on the My Parish app and St. Anthony's Facebook page. Sign-up sheets to volunteer at the sale will be available at a later date. Questions? Contact one of the co-chairs, Janet Snyder (309)645-1581 or Geri O'Neill (309)645-2175. Thank you!

Garage Sale Item Drop Off

Garage Sale item drop off has begun! Have you been holding onto items waiting for the next sale? Or been putting off going through your closets? There's no time like the present to get these things done. Items can be left under the pavilion through Wed., April 17. Please note we do not accept mattresses, TVs, computers, monitors, large appliances, non-working appliances, tires, paint, VHS tapes, cassette tapes or used construction equipment. Thank you!

PALM SUNDAY

COMMUNION UNDER BOTH KINDS

Beginning Holy Thursday, Mar 28, St Anthony will begin offering Holy Communion under both kinds again at Sunday Masses and Holy Days. As you recall, this practice was suspended during the COVID times. Last year, the bishop reinstated it.

I have sent a video to our Communion ministers with some basic information on how this will go.

The faithful, while encouraged to receive Communion under both forms, of course remain free to receive the Body only, or the Blood only, as they wish.

The 'General Instruction of the Roman Missal' (GIRM) is the official church rulebook for all things pertaining to the Mass. Among other things, the GIRM asks that the pastor make sure people know that Jesus is truly present under BOTH forms. If someone receives only one form, the sacrament is not 'less' valid. If one receives both forms, the sacrament is not 'more' valid. A person who receives both forms is not 'holier' than the person who receives one form. The faithful are given the option to receive under either form, or both.

With that being the case, then why offer Communion under both forms? Here is from the GIRM:

'Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it is distributed under both kinds. For in this form the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is more clearly evident and clear expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord...' (281)

There will be a brief review session for all EMHC's following all the masses on Mar 9-10 and following the 9am and 11:30am Masses on Mar 17. We will practice using the cup.

One final note on terminology: Prior to consecration, the Eucharistic elements consist of bread and wine. After the consecration, they become the Body and Blood of our dear Savior.

For this reason, we would like to avoid using the terms 'bread' or 'wine' for the consecrated elements. You will actually never receive bread or wine at a Catholic mass. That's because when you come up for Communion, the elements have changed! That's why we prefer the terms 'ciborium' and 'cup' or, if you please, 'Body' and 'Blood.'

Thanks and God bless!

-Fr Charles
