Interested in Becoming Catholic?

On Thursday September 4, at 7pm, St Anthony's will host an informational meeting on "OCIA" - which stands for "Order of Christian Initiation for Adults."

The meeting is for anyone interested in becoming Catholic - or even anyone just wanting to learn more about the Catholic faith!

Fr Charles will lead the meeting, which will address expectations and also the materials and resources we will use for the instructions. OCIA will meet on Thursdays from 7-8:30pm, leading up to the celebration of the sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil on April 4, 2026.

Is God calling you? Please prayerfully consider joining us!

We will meet at the rectory (parish house) in the lower level, which is a nicely remodeled and comfortable, informal space.
-Fr Charles

From Fulton Sheen

Politics has become so all-possessive of life, that by impertinence it thinks the only philosophy a person can hold is the right or the left. This question puts out all the lights of religion so they can call all the cats gray. It assumes that man lives on a purely horizontal plane, and can move only to the right or the left. Had we eyes less material, we would see that there are two other directions where a man with a soul may look: the vertical directions of "up" or "down."

First Friday Adoration

It will resume on Friday, October 3rd
